Business Criteria

The Business Criteria endorsement is required by those who are running a security or investigative services business.

Due to the nature of the industry, many private investigators and some security operatives are established as private contractors and are therefore self-employed.

To operate as a business in the security and investigations industry in South Australia, applicants must satisfy the Business Criteria for Contractors, as administered by Consumer and Business Services (CBS).

Pre-requisites and requirements

There are no pre-requisites for enrollment into this unit.

Individuals will need access to a computer including MS Word.

Duration

Enrol now for immediate start. Business Plan is a self-paced program, completed via online learning.

On successful completion, participants receive a Statement of Attainment.
